Druckerei zu Altenburg Renews Certification – as to Digital Data Printing in Accordance with ISO 12647-8.

Druckerei zu Altenburg (DZA) is by all accounts a printing company with a long tradition – it has been in existence since 1594 and has now been operating for 430 years. With its prepress, printing, bookbinding and logistics departments, the modern, medium-sized media company offers "everything under one roof".

DZA's certification by the Sächsisches Institut für die Druckindustrie (SID) also has a strong (albeit not quite as long) tradition. DZA's Fujifilm digital press of has been recertified for digital data printing in accordance with ISO 12647-8 by the SID.
